

HIGHER ED & K-12

Friday 2 - 5 PM

High School Student FREE VISIT

High school teachers and HTE researchers will lead a storytelling workshop and assist in the set up of the Lantern Library in Soho. Students will learn more about curation and museum set up while engaging in storytelling exercises for social change.

Sunday 5 - 6 PM

Young Lordes Collective Day!

Join students as they explore the history of collage making and photography in marginalized communities and build your own collage to be framed in the Lantern Library. All materials provided. Guests can take their creations home.

Monday 10 - 11AM EST
Zoom and In Person

Higher Ed bell hooks Belonging Book Club

Bring your copy of bell hooks' Belonging: A Culture of Place, and spend some time in conversation with higher education professionals seeking to dismantle systemic oppression in their practice. What does bell hooks tell us about the places we find comfort, our exploration away from those places and our journey back home?

Monday 3 - 4 PM

K-12 Teacher Wellness and Book Club

K-12 Teachers will engage in a conversation about Dr. Mary Rice Booth's book, Leading Within Systems of Inequity. Teachers will support one another in a facilitated conversation led by HTE research Malik Guidry.
